Come and join us this August Bank Holiday

This August Bank Holiday weekend, be inspired by artists who moved out of their studio to paint en plein air or out of doors. We are rediscovering the creative potential of our surroundings, our city, and our streets...on the doorstep of the gallery.

There is something for everyone and all ages are welcome.

Through an exciting and family friendly programme of artist-led drawing, embossed printmaking, live music from uilleann pipes to string quartet and traditional music, street spectacle by the Dublin Circus Project, and Poetry bursts in conjunction with Poetry Ireland, we encourage you to take the time to look around you and be inspired!

Free, and art materials are provided.

ART SPACES

*"You can't do sketches enough.
Sketch everything and keep your curiosity fresh."
John Singer Sargent*

Drawing Out of Doors

We invite you to look around you and sketch what you see! Our artists have plenty of ideas and tips for capturing nature, the outdoors, streetscapes and more. Drawing is a great way to discover more about the world around you. Art materials are supplied.

Location on street: Lady Lavery Easels art station

Embossed Print-Making

Our artists will show you how to create a beautiful embossed print by pressing simple shapes onto special paper. Look for inspiration in the patterns around you or from nature when composing your ideas.

Location on street: Estella Solomons art station

Wildflower Garden

Join us to celebrate the outdoors by creating a pop-up wildflower garden in the heart of the city. This workshop is suitable for all ages. We will use a variety of techniques to recreate some beautiful paper blossoms!

"In drawing, nothing is better than the first attempt."

MUSIC

Location: Main Stage

Saturday 30 July 2022

12.15pm

Aisling Ennis – harp, Anna Cashell violin,

Aisling Ennis and Anna Cashell present a programme of light classical music featuring Saint Saëns, Tedeschi and other popular classical works.

1.15pm

Éamonn Galldubh Trio

Uilleann piper Éamonn Galldubh brings his fascinating exploration of pipes in the baroque era, performing music of Bach, Leclair, Handel as well as some traditional tunes accompanied by Rachel Factor (harpsichord) and Lioba Petrie (cello).

2.15pm

Botanic String Quartet

Botanic String Quartet present a relaxed and friendly string quartet concert of popular songs from the Beatles to the Weekend : the Cure to Coldplay, this is a performance for anyone who loves music.

3.15pm

Derek Copley Trio

The Derek Copley trio is obsessed with the rhythms of both Irish and American dance tunes. A classic string band setup of banjo, fiddle and guitar, Derek Copley has made the seldom-endeavoured journey of incorporating jig rhythms into his clawhammer banjo playing, along with the trance-like fiddle tunes of American old time music

Sunday 31 July 2022

12.15pm

Aisling Ennis - electric harp

Aisling Ennis shows her energy and versatility in playing both classical repertoire and the electric harp improvisations using effects pedals and extended techniques.

1.15pm

Lioba Petrie and Abigail Smith Duo

Fragments is a new body of work by Lioba and Abigail with cello, voice and other instruments. Fragments is the bringing together of ideas, seeds of musical thought then developing them and taking inspiration from their surrounding areas and their lives as mothers and musicians.

2.15pm

Botanic String Quartet

Botanic String Quartet present a relaxed and friendly string quartet concert of popular songs from the Beatles to the Weekend : the Cure to Coldplay, this is a performance for anyone who loves music.

3.15pm

Derek Copley Trio

The Derek Copley trio is obsessed with the rhythms of both Irish and American dance tunes and perform with a classic string band setup of banjo, fiddle and guitar.

In tandem with Art and the Outdoors we are delighted to present our inaugural city-wide exhibition of children's art at the Hugh Lane Gallery.

Following a call-out to children aged from junior infants to 2nd class throughout the Dublin City Council area inviting them to enter our art competition on the theme of What I Love About the Great Outdoors!, 52 beautiful artworks have been selected for display and are on view at the Hugh Lane Gallery from 26 July – 2 October 2022. Well done to all of the children who entered and to their teachers.

On view in the Hugh Lane Gallery, in gallery 6 beside the Sculpture Hall on the Ground Floor

PODCASTS

While relaxing outside we invite you to listen to some of our artists' podcasts here

VISIT THE HUGH LANE GALLERY

We hope you enjoy visiting our stained glass room, the Francis Bacon Studio, our collection of Irish and international modern and contemporary art as well as our current exhibition Eva Gonzalès is What Dublin Needs.
